Subject: Thank you for supporting birth control access for all women

Dear Kathleen Sebelius, Secretary of Health & Human Services,

The population of the earth is reaching critical mass. Through this decision, availing women the right to birth control, we are helping our fragile earth and other species currently under extreme pressure due to humans. Giving women this right shows societal support for a crucial element that involves the well being of all of us. Thank you, thank you!

Sincerely,

Betsy Clark
